Nursing Student
Clinical Documentation Pre-Training Quiz

1. Meditech is the Healthcare Information system used at Advocate BroMenn Medical Center.

   True or False

2. It is acceptable to use someone else’s ID and Password to access patient (or other) information in the computer documentation system.

   True or False

3. Areas highlighted in pink on the status board indicate
   a. The intervention is outdated.
   b. The intervention is overdue.
   c. The intervention does not apply to this patient.
   d. None of the above.

4. Areas with a grey back round/arrow on the status board indicate
   a. The data in the grey area is not the most recent data.
   b. There are no grey back round areas on the status board.
   c. There is more information available and can be accessed by clicking on the arrow.
   d. None of the above.

5. If you need to edit or remove charting from a patient’s chart you should contact your instructor or the nurse caring for the patient.

   True or False

6. The rights of patient documentation include:
   a. Patient, encounter, age, gender, date.
   b. Patient, encounter, DOB, allergies.
   c. User, patient, encounter, intervention, date and time.
   d. User, date and time.

7. You can access the patient’s EMR by clicking on:
   a. The EMR link on the right tool bar
   b. Clicking on the patient’s name from the status board
   c. Students do not have access to the EMR
   d. None of the above.

8. Your nursing documentation is best reviewed in the EMR by clicking on:
   a. Interventions
   b. History
   c. Care Activity
   d. None of the above